Independent Auditors' Report

The Board of Directors Eugene and Agnes E. Meyer Foundation

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of the Eugene and Agnes E. Meyer Foundation (the "Foundation"), which comprise the statement of financial position as of December 31, 2015, and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Eugene and Agnes E. Meyer Foundation as of December 31, 2015, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

1. Organization

The Eugene and Agnes E. Meyer Foundation (the "Foundation") was established in 1944. It is a private foundation engaged in making grants for charitable and educational purposes in response to the changing needs of the Washington, D.C. metropolitan community. The Foundation's capital was originally provided, and was later substantially augmented, by contributions from Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Meyer, from whom the Foundation takes its name.

The Foundation is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) and 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code and has been further classified as a "private foundation." The Foundation is subject to an excise tax on its net investment income. Excise taxes consist of two components: current taxes based upon net investment income and deferred taxes which arise from the difference between the tax cost of the investments and the fair value of the investments.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation and Use of Estimates

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("U.S. GAAP"), which requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Accordingly actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents represent short-term investments with maturities at the time of purchase of three months or less. At times, cash balances may be in excess of FDIC insurance limit.

Fair Value Measurements

The Foundation follows U.S. GAAP guidance on Fair Value Measurements which defines fair value and establishes a fair value hierarchy organized into three levels based upon the input assumptions used in pricing assets. Level 1 inputs have the highest reliability and are related to assets with unadjusted quoted prices in active markets. Level 2 inputs relate to assets with other than quoted prices in active markets which may include quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities or other inputs which can be corroborated by observable market data. Level 3 inputs are unobservable inputs and are used to the extent that observable inputs do not exist.

Notes to Financial Statements December 31, 2015

During 2015, the Foundation adopted new U.S. GAAP guidance which removed the requirements to categorize within the fair value hierarchy alternative investments where fair value is measured using the Net Asset Value ("NAV") per share as a practical expedient. Adoption of this guidance was applied retrospectively and had no effect on the carrying value of such investments.

Investment and Income Recognition

Investments, other than temporary cash investments, are carried at fair value. Temporary cash investments are valued at cost plus accrued interest. Purchases and sales of securities are recorded on a trade-date basis. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis and dividends are recorded on the ex-dividend date. Realized and unrealized gains and losses are included in the determination of the change in net assets.

Investments Risks and Uncertainties

Alternative investments consist of non-traditional, not readily marketable investments, some of which may be structured as offshore limited partnerships, venture capital funds, hedge funds, private equity funds and common trust funds. The underlying investments of such funds, whether invested in stock or other securities, are generally not currently traded in a public market and typically are subject to restrictions on resale. Values determined by investment managers and general partners of underlying securities that are thinly traded or not traded in an active market may be based on historical cost, appraisals, a review of the investees' financial results, financial condition and prospects, together with comparisons to similar companies for which quoted market prices are available or other estimates that require varying degrees of judgment.

Because of the inherent uncertainty of valuations, the estimated fair values may differ significantly from the values that would have been used had a ready market for such investments existed or had such investments been liquidated, and those differences could be material.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Property and Equipment

Furniture and equipment are carried at cost. Leasehold improvements are depreciated over the lesser of the life of the asset or the term of the lease. Depreciation is recorded using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, which ranges from 3 to 10 years. Physical assets acquired with costs in excess of $1,000 and having a period of benefit in excess of one year are capitalized.

Grant Expense

The Foundation recognizes grant expense upon award of the grant. Grant pledges for future years are recorded net of discounts to present value.

Deferred Compensation Plan

Funds held for the Foundation's Section 457(b) deferred compensation plan are included in the Foundation's investment accounts.

Presentation of Net Assets

Net assets are classified based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions. Accordingly, the Foundation's net assets and changes therein are classified as permanently restricted, temporarily restricted or unrestricted. Unrestricted net assets do not have donor-imposed restrictions. Temporarily restricted net assets are subject to donor restrictions that are expected to be satisfied by passage of time or actions of the Foundation. Permanently restricted net assets contain donor-imposed restrictions that stipulate that resources be maintained permanently, but permit the Foundation to use or expend part or all of the income derived from the donated amounts for a specified purpose. The Foundation does not have any permanently restricted net assets.

Contributions

Contributions are recorded when received and as temporarily restricted support if they are received with donor stipulations that limit the use of the contribution or that have time restrictions. When a temporary restriction expires, that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified as unrestricted net assets and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions. Contributions that are restricted by the donor are reported as an increase in unrestricted net assets if the restriction expires in the reporting period in which the contribution is received.

Notes to Financial Statements December 31, 2015

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Functional Allocation of Expenses

The costs of providing various programs and related supporting services have been summarized on a functional basis in the accompanying financial statements. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among the appropriate programs and supporting services benefited.

Reclassifications

Reclassifications of certain prior year amounts have been made to conform to the current year presentation.

Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes

The Foundation's accounting policy is to provide liabilities for uncertain income tax positions when a liability is probable and estimable. Management is not aware of any violation of its tax status as a foundation exempt from income taxes. The Foundation is no longer subject to examinations by applicable taxing jurisdictions for periods prior to December 31, 2012.

Subsequent Events Evaluation by Management

Management has evaluated subsequent events for disclosure and/or recognition in the financial statements through the date that the financial statements were available to be issued, which date is May 23, 2016.

3. Concentration of Credit Risk

The Foundation's cash, cash equivalents and investments are potentially exposed to concentrations of credit risk. The Foundation invests its cash and equivalents with quality financial institutions. The Foundation invests in common stocks, mutual funds, limited partnerships, bonds and notes issued by financially strong entities, the United States, and foreign governments. The Foundation routinely assesses the diversification and financial strength of its cash and investment portfolio. As a consequence, concentrations of credit risk are limited.

4. Investments

The following are major categories of investments measured at fair value on a recurring basis at December 31, grouped by the fair value hierarchy, for those investments subject to categorization within such hierarchy:

4. Investments (continued)

(1) As discussed in Note 2, investments that are measured using the practical expedient are not classified within the fair value hierarchy. The fair value amounts presented in the total column of this table are intended to permit reconciliation of the fair value hierarchy to the amounts presented in the balance sheets.

Information regarding investments valued at NAV using the practical expedient at December 31, 2015 are as follows:

	 Fair Value	-	Infunded nmitments	Redemption Frequency (If Currently Eligible)	Redemption Notice Period

- (a) This class includes funds that invest predominantly in long-only, diversified equity securities seeking to outperform reference equity market benchmarks in the US and overseas.
- (b) This category includes funds that invest in a broad array of strategies seeking to exploit security mispricings caused by mergers and acquisitions, spin-offs, tracking stocks, accounting write-offs, reorganizations, bankruptcies, share buybacks and special dividends.
- (c) This class consists of one fund that is specifically focused on investing in the credit and equity of companies that are experiencing business, financial, market or legal uncertainties; attempting to capture the difference between the market price of the security and their underlying intrinsic value.
- (d) This category is primarily represented by two funds that invest in multi-strategy portfolios that have a broad mandate and employ an opportunistic investment approach, shifting capital across asset classes and strategies depending on their profitability. These funds may vary their allocations dramatically across strategies over time and may invest heavily in a certain strategy or not at all depending on the opportunity set at that time.
- (e) This class includes funds with portfolios consisting of a core group of long stock positions with short sales of stock and stock indices in global equity markets. These funds vary in their use of short-selling and leverage.

4. Investments (continued)

- (f) This category consists of one fund that invests in a portfolio of intermediate duration, US government bonds seeking to replicate the returns of the Barclays Intermediate Government Bond Index.
- (g) This category consists of one fund that invests in a diversified, long-only portfolio of US Master Limited Partnerships.

5. Property and Equipment

Property and equipment consists of the following as of December 31:
